Allotment of Space in Foreign Fairs

*220. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether the Trade Associations and Chamber of Commerce which are already having allotted space in foreign fairs will continue to be allowed collective participation of its members in view of their better contacts with their counterpart associations abroad and whose members are the real importers or promoters of the Indian goods;

(b) whether they have to get clearance from EPC/Boards to obtain foreign exchange clearance from the RBI; and

(c) whether they can apply directly to RBI for total exchange clearance for the collective participation to reduce the total cost of participation for individual companies and to reduce outflow of foreign exchange from the country ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Collective participation in fairs abroad by members of Trade Associations is allowed where no official agency like India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO) etc. is organising any national level participation.

(b) and (c) As per Reserve Bank of India's latest guidelines, any blanket permit holder intending to participate in fairs/exhibitions abroad may approach the RBI directly for release of foreign exchange in accordance with their procedure. Any participant other than blanket permit holder whose participation expenditure per event is more than Rs. 2.00 lakhs, will have to approach India Trade Promotion Organisation (erstwhile TFAI) for their clearance before approaching Reserve Banking of India.
